CARBINE CLUB OF QUEENSLAND- MAGIC MILLIONS LUNCH

Once again, the Carbine Club Queensland stepped up to present one of the premier events of the Magic Millions week at the fabulous Star Casino Broadbeach.

The Club was extremely fortunate to secure Alan Thomas as its MC for the day and Bart Sinclair to do the "on the floor" interviews along with Adrian 'AJ' Johnson from Gold 92.5 FM.

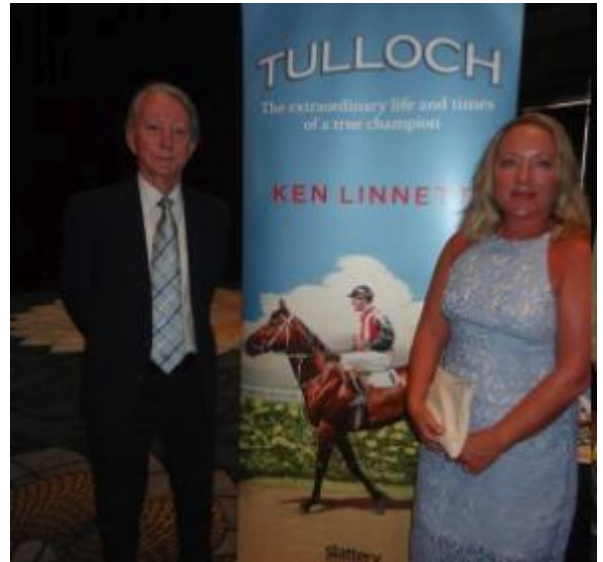

It was great to have Bart get a quick take from young jockey Matt McGillivray and the slightly more experienced Corey Brown about their upcoming races.

Alan then took over to interview Scott McAlpine, trainer of Spirit of Boom, the potential champion sire. How interesting was it to get Scott's take on the big race on the following Saturday? This was followed by Alan's skilful discussion with the champion jockey Corey Brown. Corey movingly shared with the audience his battle with dyslexia and provided his assessment of the upcoming events on the following Saturday. Everybody enjoyed his amusing stories about the great personalities he has dealt with over the years.

We were then graced by Alan's talk with leading bookie Mark Read. Mark talked about his long family history in the racing industry, his successful relationship with the great trainer Henry Davis and his acquisition of the iconic Sydney property "Boomerang".

Alan's final interview was with the strapper of the great Tulloch, Lem Bann. Lem (who looked sprightly enough to ride the trackwork the next day) told the audience of his great love and relationship with the champion horse and shared stories of his long career in the industry.

The day was rounded out by the Club's auction of Corey's silks from his Melbourne Cup winning ride on Rekindling and a fabulous piece of Tulloch memorabilia and the always well supported raffle. The Club would like to thank the generous supporters who enable it to have these very successful fundraising events.

All round, a very successful and enjoyable event. Look forward to seeing you at the next lunch.
